Thought for the Week – from Caroline

Be a blessing to others. Some ideas from Joyce Meyer:

- Smile at people you meet and hold the door open for them.
- Compliment someone on their talent, kind service, attentiveness or pleasant attitude.
- Give someone in need of transportation a ride to church or the shops.
- Help a single mum, widow or physically challenged person by cleaning their house or garden.
- Bake a cake for someone.
- Help someone new in town find a dentist, doctor, mechanic or dry cleaner.
- Take out your neighbour's rubbish.
- Wash someone's car while washing yours.
- Run an errand for someone.
- Set aside an hour or two a month to visit an elderly person you know at home or in a home, help them with something, play a game or just sit and listen to them share.
- Phone the manager of a shop where you received excellent service and thank them.
- Send a note of appreciation to someone by mail or email.
- Give someone a gift of groceries.
- Babysit a couple's children so they can have a night out.
- Anonymously pay for someone's meal at a restaurant, or just put cash in an envelope in their letterbox.
- Sincerely listen to someone share their heart ... give them your undivided attention, and pray for them.

Genesis 12:2: I will bless you (with abundant increase of favours) and make your name famous and distinguished, and you will be a blessing (dispensing good to others).

Our Roman Catholic brothers and sisters have invited us to a Charismatic Praise and Healing Service this Friday, 19th January at 7.30 pm in the Church. Uplifting songs of worship, a talk on healing, followed by healing prayer. There will be tea, coffee and fellowship.
