Church Meeting – this Tuesday at 7.30 pm in the Social Hall

The Fellowship has a "business" meeting twice a year, when we review our activities, finances and vision. All who worship with us regularly are encouraged to attend. Refreshments will be available.

The agenda will follow the usual pattern – please see one of the Leadership Group (Dave, Katie, Kevin, Irma) if there is something specific you would like to raise.

Thought for the Week – from Caroline

Joshua stood before the children of Israel, an old man and about to die. Everyone knew they were on the verge of a new era of history. In an emotional speech Joshua said, "Now I am about to go the way of all the earth. You know with all your heart and soul that not one of all the good promises the Lord your God gave you has failed. Every promise has been fulfilled; not one has failed."

Today we can say the same. The church has been through a thousand ups and downs in its history, but not one of God's promises has failed. And looking forward to the uncertainties of the future, every person who has put their life into the hands of Jesus can say with the Apostle Paul, "My God will meet all your (my) needs according to His glorious riches in Christ Jesus." (Phil. 4:19) There can be no safer hands in which to rest in turbulent days.
