Thought for the Week – from Caroline

O Lord, our Lord, how majestic is your name in all the earth! (Psalm 8:9)

*When I consider your heavens, the work of your fingers, the moon and the stars, which you have set in place,
what is man that you are mindful of him, ... (Psalm 8:3)*

It is truly amazing when you see all the beauty of creation: majestic snow-capped mountains, the delicate glorious detail and colours of birds and flowers, the infinite variety of weird and wonderful fish, each animal unique in its design and capabilities, the pile of their fur plush and deep, the snake with its leathery texture and intricate patterns, the roar and power of the oceans, the wind in the gigantic trees, the ever-faithful changing of the seasons, the ebb and flow of the tide – I could go on and on and on – God has given us so much. How can people not believe in a creator God, an author and perfecter – and yet He is mindful of man, man who lets him down, man who takes all this for granted, man who thinks he knows best, man who gets drawn so easily into ways that hurt Him, but because He loves us so much he gives us the ability to make choices, to be for him or against him, to believe or not believe.

Today, because we do believe that we too are fearfully and wonderfully made, made in His image, we are saying a special thank you for His provision at this Harvest Family Service.

By the way, Victorian hymns such as "We plough the fields and scatter" and "All things bright and beautiful" helped popularise Harvest Festival in churches.
