Thought for the Week — from Caroline

Unwanted Visitor

A man, down on his luck, went into a church which catered to the "uppity." Spotting the man's dirty clothes a deacon, worried about the church's image, went to the man and asked him if he needed help. The man said, "I was praying and the Lord told me to come to this church."

The deacon suggested that the man go and pray some more and possibly he might get a different answer. The next Sunday the man returned. The deacon asked, "Did you get a different answer?"

The man replied, "Yes I did. I told the Lord that they don't want me in that church and the Lord said, "Don't worry about it son; I've been trying to get into that church for years and haven't made it yet."

Visiting Pastor

A pastor went out one Saturday to visit his church members. At one house, it was obvious that someone was home, but nobody came to the door even though he knocked several times. Finally, he took out his card, wrote out "Revelation 3:20" on the back of it, and stuck it in the door. "Behold, I stand at the door and knock. If anyone hears my voice and opens the door, I will come in to him and dine with him, and he with me."

The next day, the card turned up in the collection plate. Below the pastor's message was written the following: "I heard your voice in the garden, and I was afraid because I was naked; and I hid myself." – Genesis 3:10
