Thought for the Week – from Caroline

Psalm 66:19 "…but God has surely listened and has heard my prayer."

In the morning before I go out I have a time of prayer with Jesus. I sit on my settee in my front room and look out onto my tiny front garden which always makes me feel joyful, I love God's creation so much. First I thank Him for His blessings and what He's done in my life, I then say sorry for the way I've let Him down in words or attitudes and then I chat to Him about my concerns or insecurities, I bring all my family to Him and tell Him I'm trusting Him with them, ask Him to work amazingly in their lives and in my friends' lives. I talk about relevant issues and I pray for those I know who are unwell. Sometimes I play a worship song. However yesterday I said to Him, "Lord, I know You can hear me, I believe You answer my prayers and that You died for me but I don't I FEEL You, I need to feel Your presence and that I'm not just talking. You know I struggle with public prayer times and that my mind is easily distracted by so many things. Why do other people experience You in ways I don't, is it me? What am I not doing?" As I was saying this I suddenly saw the wind blowing through the branches of my hibiscus making them move gracefully and then to my surprise there was a sudden very short burst of sunlight that lit the garden up and the lyrics of the song "Love is All Around" by Wet Wet Wet came into my head and I made it my prayer. I knew without a doubt it was God, and where the lyric says "'Cos on my love you can depend," I changed it to "'Cos on Your love I can depend." Also not "IF you really love me" but "Because You really love me."

The lyrics to "Love Is All Around"

I feel it in my fingers, I feel it in my toes
The love is all around me and so the feeling grows
It's written on the wind, it's everywhere I go
So if you really love me, come on and let it show

You know I love you, I always will
My mind's made up by the way that I feel
There's no beginning, there'll be no end
'Cos on my love you can depend

I see your face before me as I lay on my bed
I kinda get to thinking of all the things you said
You gave your promise to me and I gave mine to you
I need someone beside me in everything I do

You know I love you, I always will
My mind's made up by the way that I feel
There's no beginning, there'll be no end
'Cos on my love you can depend

It's written in the wind, it's everywhere I go
So if you really love me, come on and let it show
Come on and let it show
Come on and let it show
Come on and let it show
